NCHD celebrates International Volunteers' Day

NCHD celebrated "International Volunteers' Day" in District Charsadda. Provincial Coordinator of Pakistan People's Partly Mr. Baharmand Khan was the chief guest at the occasion. The event was attended by a large number of people from education field. The role of volunteers during national disasters like floods and earthquakes etc. was highlighted by the speakers. The chief guest appreciated the role of volunteers during the recent floods and urges them to take more active part in the development of the country through education and skill development.

Chief Guest Awarding Certificate to DPML Charsadda

A similar function was arranged in Mithi Tharparkar where Dr. Mahesh Kumar Mallani MNA was the chief guest. The participants include politicians, philanthropists, senior citizens, educationalists, writers, artists, journalists, CSO representatives, social activists etc. More than 100 volunteers from across the district participated in the program and were awarded with appreciation certificates. The MNA appreciated NCHD's operations for the welfare of the people and assured for his continues support in NCHD's future endeavors.

A View of the Partcicipants