

CM Sindh inaugurates NCHD's economic development project.....read more

Chief Minister Sindh Syed Qaim Ali Shah inaugurated the tailoring center established by NCHD in collaboration with Benazir Bhutto Shaheed Youth Development Program at Razaqabad flood relief camp under economic development project for women.

The camp will initially impart training to 50 ladies for trade of tailoring, cutting, sewing etc. according to the program, 350 centers will be established in 13 districts where about 8,750 women will be trained. The chief minister was further informed that the ladies getting this training will also be paid stipend of Rs.2, 500.

The event was attended by various provincial ministers and advisors to CM.

