

Certificate Distribution Ceremony for the students at NCHD Head Office

NCHD celebrated two mega events recently; one is the World Teachers' Day on 5th October 2010 and the other, Pakistan Girls Education Initiative (PGEI) Launch Ceremony on 9th Dec 2010.

During World Teacher's Day event, students from F/6-2 Girls College sung a song dedicated to teachers, which the Chairperson, NCHD announced shall be the official anthem for National Teachers' Day.

Students from F/7-4 Margalla College recited a poem dedicated to Girls on the launch of PGEI.

Chairperson NCHD, Ms. Nafisa Shah announced to present certificates and gifts to the girl students for their performances. Hence a ceremony was held here in the NCHD Head office on 21st Dec 2010. The Principals and teachers of both the colleges along with NCHD staff attended the event. DG NCHD opened the desk with vote of thanks and appreciated performances of the students. The Principals & students of both the colleges also expressed their views and gratitude to the Chairperson NCHD Nafisa Shah for her invitation and time which she spent with them. In the end, the Chairperson said that NCHD will provide them opportunities in future too. Then she distributed certificates and gifts among the students and the music team from Radio Pakistan.
