

CHAIRPERSON NCHD SHOWS SOLIDARITY WITH THE FLOOD AFFECTEES BY SHARING EID CELEBRATIONS WITH THEM

“We will not leave our distressed brothers and sisters alone on this Eid”, says Chairperson National Commission for Human Development (NCHD), Ms. Nafisa Shah-MNA. She was visiting a relief camp in Risalpur Nowshera, accommodating 150 families.

Talking to the people, Ms. Nafisa Shah said that the whole nation felt the pain and suffering of the people affected by the recent floods, and they are helping them very open heartedly by contributing in various ways. She said that NCHD has executed rescue operations at various districts of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and is currently working in Sindh to save human lives. NCHD has also adopted 17 relief camps throughout Pakistan and is providing food, water, medicines and shelter to thousands of people. At this occasion, she thanked the contributions of philanthropists and NGOs and appealed them to continue supporting NCHD.

The gloomy faces shone up and smiles were all around when the Chairperson distributed Eid gifts amongst the flood affected people. The children performed tableau and skits showing how they lost everything they had at home.

